Objective(s)

- Learn about paper making and printing in China.
- Learn about common currency themes, e.g., Cantonese Opera.
- Understanding the evolution of banknotes and coins in Hong Kong.

Brief Descriptions:

The docent explained the history of money, the characteristics of Hong Kong coins and the manufacturing process of banknotes. The docent introduced the ancient Chinese currency and the characteristics of Hong Kong banknotes, such as the depiction of Cantonese Opera, which is a legacy of Chinese art and culture, and traditional Chinese festivals, which reflected the richness of Hong Kong banknotes in Chinese culture. Children learnt about the paper-making and printing in China and deepened their recognition of the Chinese cultural heritage.
