Name of Activity

Visit the Tuen Mun Reptile House and Tuen Mun Park

Objective(s)

- Learn about different insects
- To learn about Chinese old trees and Chinese garden architecture
- To develop an appreciation and care for nature

Brief Descriptions:

The children visited the Reptile House to learn about the different types of animals and specimens. The teacher invited the children to appreciate the old and famous trees in China, such as the Flame Tree. The children explored the nature with different senses, such as appreciating the flowers and trees with their eyes, listening to the sounds of the nature with their ears, touching the flowers and trees with their hands, and smelling the plants with their noses, the children learnt that the plants in nature are alive, and they were able to develop a sense of caring for the nature. The teacher also introduced some Chinese garden buildings in Tuen Mun Park, including Chinese bridges, lakes, waterfalls and water fountains.
