Brief Descriptions:

Through diversified parent-child activities, we continue to allow children to understand and appreciate Chinese art and culture, build a sense of belonging to the country, and allow parents and children to share parent-child time and enjoy the joy of traditional festivals while increasing their understanding of Chinese cultural customs.

Our school held a "Mid-Autumn Festival parent-child activity" on September 29, 2023 (Friday), which included: seasonal fruit skewers, snowy mooncake kneading crafts, a short video on the origin of the Mid-Autumn Festival, and lantern riddle guessing together.

The event ended successfully by giving each child an apple. Apple symbolizes physical and mental health, and on the occasion of the Mid-Autumn Festival. We would like to send warm blessings to every child and family, wishing them a healthy and happy Mid-Autumn Festival!
