Brief Descriptions:

At the beginning of the activity, the staff gathered the children to introduce the theme of the activity and each person's identity, sang the theme song together, and got to know each other. Then the staff divided the children into four groups according to their age to participate in theme activities and first they will introduce the character of Fruittos to the child. The N2 children were divided into two groups that day: SOWGOOD! Restaurant opening day (creativity), avocado rescue operation (observation). The children in the creativity group mainly engaged in free artistic drawing. Children can freely choose paints and tools to create graffiti on the wall in the designated space. Children in the observation group first played a game of listening to sounds, and then worked together to use observation to find avocados from various prompts.

Children in the creativity group were able to share the names of various foods and follow instructions to create personalized foods. They took the initiative to use different tools to create on the wall, and even printed pictures with their hands, showing that they were engaged and happy.

Children in the observation group can follow the instructions to listen to the sounds of animals with their ears and then find pictures of animals posted at different locations in the space. They can also use careful visual observation to find where the avocado is hiding. In addition to showing good observation skills, they can also It shows their concentration and unity.

Games can guide children to naturally display various positive character behaviors, and the level of play is appropriate. It also allows teachers to master teaching activities that cultivate children's positive character and emotions and able to let everyone know about more Fruittos.
