MOTHER'S DAY – “DEAR MUMMY, I LOVE YOU”

Objective(s)

- Using Chinese historical stories, recitation of ancient poems and game playing, etc., the children will understand the greatness of mothers and their hardships.
- Children will learn how to express love to their mothers by making presents and performing a song.
- Through discussions and role plays, the children are nurtured the good virtues of Chinese tradition of “filial piety”.

Brief Descriptions:

Through the Mother's Day stories, namely “Mencius's mother moved three times” and “Song of the parting son”, the children understand the greatness of mothers and their selfless care and love. During group games, the children play the roles of mother and child. Through the performance, they will experience that their mothers look after them attentively with great care every day and understand the selfless contributions given to them.

On the Mother's Day, the activities were conducted, the mothers visited the School to enjoy the songs prepared for them by the children and review the meaning of Mother's Day through the lyrics. While watching their children's performance, mothers felt touched and happy. Finally, the children offered to their mothers each a self-made colorful mirror in Chinese artistic styles to show their love. The scene was warm and touching.

In the drama of “Beloved Mother”, teachers and children discussed the ways to respect and express love to their mothers, such as serving tea, and helping with the housework, etc., which the children understand the greatness of mothers, their hardships as well as their selfless care and love.

The above activities can enhance the relationship between children and mothers. At the same time, the children learn the ways to express their love and gratitude towards mothers which demonstrate the good virtues of the Chinese tradition, “filial piety”.
