Brief Descriptions:

‘Chinese culture’ is the theme of the summer programme this year with the sub-themes of ‘Chinese Traditional Snacks’, ‘Cantonese Opera’, and ‘Chinese Traditional Sports’, which allowing children to explore different aspects of Chinese culture. Children are participated in activities in different categories each day, including ‘Chinese Culture Knowledge’, ‘Creative Art Museum’, ‘Music Appreciation’, ‘Chinese Traditional Sports Day’, ‘Experience Workshop’, and ‘Cantonese Opera Workshop’. Through participating in different activities, children can experience Chinese cultural activities in a joyful atmosphere. On the last day of the summer programme, the children held a ‘Birthday Party of August – Chinese Traditional Sports Fun Day’ to review and conclude what they experienced in the month!

- In the ‘Chinese Culture Knowledge’ activity, the teacher introduces the weekly theme through picture books and discussions, which arousing children’s interest in Chinese cultural items, thereby entering the topic.

- In the art activity of “Creative Art Museum”, children can show their creativity during the creation process and design and make art works with Chinese and their personal characteristics, such as Cantonese opera masks, Chinese fans, swords, and Touhu.
- In the experience activity, children get to know traditional Chinese food by tasting different buns and dim sum. After tasting, children use light clay to make dim sum and sing songs about dim sum to deepen their impressions.
- In the music activity, children try to sing Cantonese opera songs and manipulate Chinese musical instruments in the Cantonese opera song “Maying Catching Chicks”, children try to sing the song in Cantonese opera singing style after learning the song.
- The school invites the professionals to conduct a Cantonese opera workshop for children, which using games to narrow the distance between children and tradition. The workshop includes "Learn Orchid Hands Together", "Gongche Musical Chairs", "Sing Cantonese Opera Heartily", "Cantonese Opera Water Sleeve Dancing ", etc. The activity allowed the children to experience traditional Chinese Cantonese opera and increased their understanding and interest in Cantonese opera.
- On the last day of the activity, a ‘Chinese Traditional Sports Fun Day’ was held. The school prepared some traditional Chinese sports equipment, introduced the gameplay and characteristics of traditional Chinese sports to the children through videos and real objects, and let the children experience traditional Chinese sports personally such as: Cuju, Chinese dance, Touhu, and Chuiwan.

During the summer programme month, a series of diversified activities promoting Chinese culture were carried out, enhancing the children’s interest in Chinese culture. Through experiencing different Chinese cultural activities, the children have a preliminary understanding of traditional Chinese culture and enjoy the fun of different activities.
