Outdoor visit : Tuen Mun Park

Objective(s)

- Through the visit, children can learn about the inclusive play facilities for people with disabilities, to cultivate children's empathy and learn to understand the needs of other, Also, they can learn how to respect and care for others.

Brief Descriptions:

- Through visiting and personally experiencing the barrier-free facilities at the inclusive playground in Tuen Mun, children not only gained a deeper understanding of the inclusive play equipment available in the community, but also came to realize how such playgrounds can offer enhanced sensory experiences—such as tactile and visual stimulation—for children with special needs. These interactions helped the children learn the values of inclusion and compassion, encouraging them to care for and embrace people with different needs in the community.
