Name of Activity

Dough Figurine Art Workshop

Objective(s)

- (1) Learn about the virtues of gratitude, filial piety, and respect for teachers in Chinese culture, and develop their ability to express thankfulness.
- (2) Recognize and appreciate traditional Chinese folk crafts

Brief Descriptions:

Before the activity, children were introduced to the history and characteristics of dough figurine art through videos and explanations. During the workshop, the instructor demonstrated step-by-step techniques such as kneading, rolling, cutting, and sticking to guide the children in making their own dough figurines. With the instructor's assistance, | children worked in groups to create their artworks. After the activity, the finished pieces were assembled into bouquets and presented to parents during the farewell ceremony. The children not only experienced the joy of traditional craftsmanship but also learned to express gratitude, appreciate themselves, and demonstrated cooperation and sharing. | The activity successfully integrated cultural heritage, art education, and emotional education, achieving the intended objectives.
