Name of Activity

Chinese Restaurant Learning Day

Objective(s)

- Understand Chinese dining culture and the distinctive decorations of tea houses.
- Learn the names of different dim sums, Chinese teas, and traditional Chinese teaware.
- Enjoy the experience of visiting a tea house to eat dim sum.

Brief Descriptions:

Through activities, children learn about the appearance of traditional Chinese restaurant and some names of Chinese dim sum and teas. During the experience of drinking tea, they also learn the etiquette of visiting a chinese restaurant, such as expressing thanks verbally or through gestures when someone pours tea for them, using serving chopsticks when eating with others, keeping the area clean while eating, and not speaking loudly so as not to disturb other patrons. In addition, everyone also discusses the unique decorations of the tea house, such as tablecloths, teapots on tables, lazy susans, etc. With the approach of Lunar New Year, the children also take this opportunity to distribute Spring Festival couplets and New Year decorations to the patrons of the tea house, offering them New Year blessings and bringing love into the community.
