Name of Activity

2025–2026 Parent-Child Farm Experience Day

Objective(s)

- Through farming experience activities, children and parents can learn about farmers' work and lifestyle, as well as the growth conditions and cultivation methods of crops. This helps nurture respect for labor, develop gratitude, care for nature, and foster an attitude of cherishing food.

Brief Descriptions:

- In the “I Am a Little Farmer” activity, parents and children work together to experience tasks such as soil turning, sowing, watering, weeding, and harvesting. Through this, they learn about the hard work of farmers, develop respect for labor, cultivate gratitude, and foster an attitude of cherishing food.
- After completing the farming experience, parents and children will try transplanting small potted plants and take them home to continue growing, cultivate an attitude of caring for nature.
