Name of Activity

Experiential Learning Activity: "I Will Be Filial to You"

Objective(s)

- Through activities, children can understand the Traditional Chinese Virtue of "Filial Piety".
- Through activities, children can learn to be considerate of family work and help parents to do the housework.
- Through activities, children can learn how to write and send letters, expressing their feelings and gratitude through written words.

Brief Descriptions:

- By listening to the story "My Mother, My Father," children can recognize daily household responsibilities, understand the effort involved, and learn to be considerate of their family's hard work.
- Children can design patterns on sponges, then use their self-made sponges to clean the bowls and chopsticks they have used, experiencing the process of helping with chores.
- Children can practice writing letters and filling in envelopes, then visit the So Uk Post Office to send them, expressing gratitude and love to their family in written form.
- Children can prepare a "Household Package" with items such as towels and small brooms, using these tools to assist their family at home and put the virtue of filial piety into practice.
