Name of Activity

Gratitude and Growth Month

Objective(s)

1. To foster children's gratitude for themselves, and for the love and dedication of their parents and teachers.
2. To introduce young children to the traditional Chinese virtues of gratitude, filial piety, and respect for teachers, while nurturing their ability to express a thankful heart.

Brief Descriptions:

In the "Gratitude and Growth Month" series of activities, featuring four themed events designed to help young children cherish their wonderful school memories. First, during the "Graduation Thanksgiving and Farewell Ceremony," parents and children will come together to reminisce about their years of school life and express their bittersweet farewell sentiments. Next, children will show their sincere appreciation to teachers and preserve their friendships through two creative projects: collaborating on a gratitude message board for "Unforgettable Teachers, Thank You for Everything," and handcrafting unique photo frames for "The Frame of Friendship" to display pictures with their close friends. Finally, teachers and students will co-organize the "Graduation Thanksgiving Party," where children will work together to decorate the classrooms and enjoy group games and food sharing, wrapping up their preschool journey on a joyful and perfect note.
